

WEST HIGHLAND WHEELERS WINTER LEAGUE – ROUND 3 – GLEN LOY

After a very wet December, West Highland Wheelers struck lucky and held the third round of their Winter League on a dry day in Glen Loy. Conditions under the wheels were a tad muddy but that did not deter those wishing to blow off some of the Xmas excesses. Liam Moynihan proved to be just too fast for Joe Barnes on anything that pointed uphill rather than down and came through as the winner. Stephen Dent was well clear in third place with Alex Dent creeping up the leader board to a fine 7th place. Mairi Meldrum coped well with the conditions to lead the ladies home, ahead of Elizabeth Adams and Fiona Thompson. Meanwhile, lower down the field Roddy Wells and Kim Cameron forgot that one comes before two and were forced to retrace their steps. Brian Barbour's merriment at this was short-lived as he punctured close to the finish and Roddy sailed past, smiling through gritted teeth. Next trip is a lovely figure of eight out at Invergarry on the 19th Jan. Thanks to Ben, Ewan and Colleen for marking and timing.

1	Liam Moynihan	31:06
2	Joe Barnes	31:52
3	Stephen Dent	38:10	1st Junior
4	Neil Wright	42:10
5	John Shirley	42:30
6	Steve Bradley	43:10
7	Alex Dent	43:50	2nd Junior
8	Mairi Meldrum	44:16	1st Lady
9	John Parkin	44:59
10	Gavin Linfield	45:55
11	Elizabeth Adams	46:10	2nd Lady
12	Fiona Thompson	48:10	3rd Lady
13	Roddy Wells	49:46
14	Hannah Barnes	50:00
15	Brian Barbour	50:10
16	Andy Rogers	51:49
17	Frances Dent	52:47
18	Gordon Watson	54:39
19	Marek Polowianiuk	56:07
20	Kim Cameron	58:15
21	Marian Austin	59:47

Francis Dent

DNF