

WEST HIGHLAND WHEELERS 2014-15 WINTER LEAGUE
ROUND 4 – LEANACHAN 2 – 28TH Dec

The fourth round of the West Highland Wheelers Winter League took place at Leanachan. Winter truly had arrived, leading to some good, crunchy grip under-wheel and the odd, heart-in-the-mouth slide. Liam Moynihan continued his recent fine form to finish well in front. Liam now has a good lead in the Series after two firsts and two seconds. Gavin Maclean took a strong second place, ahead of Ben Thompson. Brych Hensman-Martin was the first junior, ahead of Tom McMahan, who like many other riders suffered from frozen gears. Several punctures and a wandering crank arm left several riders unable to finish the course. Many thanks to Gavin Maclean for helping to mark the course, to Nevis Range for permissions and the essential post-race coffee. Next event is at Fearnoch on the 18th January.

|                         |                                 |
|-------------------------|---------------------------------|
| 1. Liam Moynihan        | 44:15                           |
| 2. Gavin Maclean        | 47:11                           |
| 3. Ben Thompson         | 47:52                           |
| 4. Alastair MacLennan   | 48:38                           |
| 5. Stephen Cant         | 52:28                           |
| 6. Brych Hensman-Martin | 53:04                           |
| 7. Tom MacMahon         | 54:15                           |
| 8. Tony Moynihan        | 55:20                           |
| 9. Gregor Muir          | 57:20                           |
| 10. Marek Polowianiuk   | 58:21                           |
| 11. Michael Hay         | 66:39                           |
| 12. Peter Martin        | 66:55                           |
| 13. Marian Austin       | 44:06 (Short Course)            |
| 14. Mairi Meldrum       | DNF (puncture)                  |
| 15. Gavin MacMillan     | DNF(frozen gears and seat post) |
| 16. Roddy Wells         | DNF(crank arm fell off)         |