

WEST HIGHLAND WHEELERS WINTER LEAGUE ROUND 3 – GLEN LOY

West Highland Wheeler's Winter League, sponsored by Off Beat Bikes, returned to action after a snow and ice enforced break. Local riders were keen to turn a wheel again but none could match the pace of Ruari Watt on his stripped-down single speed. Joe Barnes finely tuned downhill skills helped him to a fine second place. Gavin Shirley pipped Jamie Maxwell by just 0.6 of a second to take third. Nix Forster took the ladies race after a titanic tussle with Colleen Foggo, Hannah Barnes being struck down by a mystery stomach ailment. Tom Macmahon was the first junior home. Most riders thoroughly enjoyed the new route with its silky singletrack, carefully located by Andrew Foggo and Mike Thouless. Many thanks to Anita for timing and to the course setters, Andrew, Mike and Colleen.

1.	Ruari Watt	32:39
2.	Joe Barnes	33:15
3.	Gavin Shirley	33:50:30
4.	Jamie Maxwell	33:50:96
5.	James Shirley	35:02
6.	Fergus Lamb	36:01
7.	Gavin Maclean	36:57
8.	Alastair Maclennan	38:29
9.	Jesse Wigman	39:44
10.	Mike Thouless	39:48
11.	Davie Gunn	40:55
12.	Ed Daynes	41:16
13.	Spook Munro	41:30
14.	Colin Mactavish	41:42
15.	Graham Brooks	41:53
16.	John Shirley	43:20
17.	Gavin Linfield	43:25
18.	Roddy Wells	44:10
19.	Keith Maclure	45:10
20.	Nix Forster	46:22
21.	Colleen Foggo	47:31
22.	Andy Rogers	47:56
23.	Andy Slater	48:45
24.	Allan Macpherson	51:05
25.	Tom Macmahon	51:12
26.	Donnie Meldrum	52:29
27.	John Thompson	53:32
28.	Kim Cameron	53:53
29.	Sandy Slater	54:04
30.	Rory Stewart	60:41
31.	Marian Austin	63:06
32.	Fiona Gunn	38:50 (2 laps)
33.	Maggie Thompson	40:50 (2 laps)
34.	Steve Bradley	1 lap
35.	Hannah Barnes	1 lap